

Of Interest to Women

Just Among Us Girls

By KATHRYN KENNEY

Lucy Stone League Wives.

ROLLING stones may not be arrested for parking, but they are liable to be run in for speeding. And they may not gather anything, but, oh, how they reduce! Single men may be rolling stones without any dispute, but when a man marries he's got his stall and watch him use it!

Instead of going to see a poor old uncle he sits up with a penny ante. And no matter how far away he may roll, there's a hot roll waiting for him at home. Women want husbands to be stationary and if they can get the feet moving they carry the fly paper with them!

A stone which is at the top of the hill all ready to go is the woman who belongs to the Lucy Stone league for snubbing husbands. These women want everything their husbands have in their own name! It's a case of carrying a box lunch for emergencies! If you ask them "what's in a name?" they'll answer "only what you can get out of it."

This system is fine for undecided girls who can be married or single according to the ad they are answering. They can run up bills for clothes in the man's name and vamp other men in their own name! It comes in very handy to be able to drop the mister and the misses at the same time.

Women formed this league because they are suspicious of men, and wouldn't exchange anything without a credit slip. Then, too, when you have built up a business under one name, it's hard to have a fire sale under another! Women who want to pursue their own careers want no man's name to get any credit. But it's just like a woman to start using her husband's name after her divorce just to make it harder for some other woman to get her mail!

Men, with the exception of those who wear wedding rings and carry rice in their pockets, may look like a single stew pan, when they really are double boilers. So it only seems fair that women should drop a name which gives them away before they have ever been taken over!

But if they don't take a man's name it's the only thing they don't take. Don't put all your eggs in one basket and you can have them poached instead of scrambled.

(Copyright, 1926.)

SALLY'S SALLIES

Teaching a wife how to drive often causes a marital wreck.

tucked under the little blue lamp on the bedside table.

She picked it up, and read the few lines that Ranny had scrawled across it:

"I suppose the only way to make you see that I am not going to live with you again is to go away. I have told my father how things are, and he will see that you are taken care of until you get your divorce. The money question can be settled then, of course."

That was all. Just the bare, brutal fact. He hadn't even signed his name to the note.

He had left his house and all that it stood for, as carelessly as he would have walked out of a hotel.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1926.

JUST AMONG US GIRLS

By KATHRYN KENNY

"Perpetual E-Motion."

SOME women are always falling all over the men, and they don't even bother to pick themselves up. They seem to think that because a little love lands them a dinner a lot of love should punch the meal ticket to death. Most men are bored with a constant show of affection, especially on the home grounds. They will take just so much stock in love, all the rest goes at a reduction.

Everyone knows the girl who goes in for baby talk and out for her meals. She is the clinging vine who does a lot of rambling. Some women talk sense; others need an interpreter. You think that they must be talking to a Pekingese or a kindergarten and discover that it's a six-foot-two with overlapping teeth. It's not so much the lack of loving words that sends a man away from home as it is too much custard. No woman can possibly mean every word of her baby talk, if she does the meaning doesn't show. The surest way to hang yourself with a man is to hang around his neck. If you are going to flatter him, make it between meals, not a steady diet. Before marriage a man may think it's cute to have a girl ward he knows that her silence may be golden, but her conversation talk about her love for him. After means diamonds and platinum. The

Just Among Us Girls

Kate Corlett

Love will find the way

Just Among Us Girls

Mr. Carroll

You can't blame a girl if she takes advantage of an OUTING to have her INNING.

Just Among Us Girls

It's well to remember that clothes MAKE the man, although they may BREAK the woman.

There's no
OVER LOOKING
the fact that men are fond of LOOKING OVER the girls!

Red Riso